

Journal Submission Guidelines

Contact: gsha.editor@gshaa.org

Nuestras Raíces journal accepts articles, maps, drawings, and photographs related to Hispano genealogy, history, culture, and traditions.

Publication Terms

Nuestras Raíces reserves copyright to authors of signed articles. Permission to reprint a signed article should be obtained directly from the author, and Nuestras Raíces will be acknowledged in the reprint.

Unsigned material may be reprinted without permission if Nuestras Raíces is given credit.

Authors of all material submitted will be supplied with an author's warranty form (permission to publish) to complete and return.

GSHA reserves the right to edit all material submitted for publication and assumes no responsibility for factual errors, statements, or opinions of authors. Proven errors will be corrected in future issues.

Content Requirements

You may submit articles for publication in Microsoft Word format via email. (gsha.editor@gshaa.org to the managing editor, or mail a printed copy to:

GSHA

P.O. Box 3040

Pueblo, CO 81005

Attn: Managing Editor

All submissions should be in 12-point Times front or its equivalent. Handwritten articles are acceptable and will be formatted by GSHA.

Submitted material will not be returned, so do not send originals of texts, images, or documents.

All material will be considered for publication by the editorial staff. If an article is rejected, we will notify the contributor(s) but will not return articles.

Non-members whose material is published will receive a complimentary copy of the issue in which their articles appear.

If you have any questions about these instructions, please contact the managing editor gsha.editor@gshaa.org.