

GSHA
Genealogical Society of Hispanic America

History in Our Own Backyard

Sponsored by the CSU-Pueblo University Library-Home of the Aztlán Research Center and the Colorado Chicano Movement Archives (CCMA)

The 35th Genealogy Society of Hispanic America Conference and Annual Meeting will be held at the Colorado State University-Pueblo the weekend of September 27, 28, and 29.*

This will be an in-person conference.

On September 27, the President's Reception will be held at the Pueblo Heritage Museum, downtown Pueblo at 201 West B Street from 5:30-7:30 pm.

On Saturday, the conference will move over to Colorado State University at Pueblo located at 2200 Bonforte Boulevard.

Sunday will include a choice of two field trips: To the Battlefield of De Anza and Cuerno Verde or to El Pueblo History Museum which includes an evocation of the 1842 El Pueblo Trading Post and the new Walk of Legends -- sculptures of Historic Founders.

Speakers are Dr. Nicholas Saenz of Adams State University, Dr. Derek LeFebre, Boulder. Topics are being formed now. Others on the program are Charlene Garcia Simms, Phyllis Miranda on beginning genealogy and Greg Liverman on DNA. Both Deborah Espinosa, former director of El Pueblo History Museum and Virginia Sanchez, researcher and author will present. Angel Vigil, nationally known storyteller, will be the evening speaker after El Mariachi Lobo performs. Host Hotel Wingate by Wyndham, 4711 Elizabeth, Pueblo.

Member Cost is $120. Go to www.gshaa.org for Registration after June 21. Deborah Martinez-Martinez, Coordinator, VanishingHorizons1@me.com or Daniel Romero, FACC president at facc\_president@gshaa.org What part of the conference you would like to volunteer for?